JERASH RED

0344C

A very fragile 18th Century velvet fragment from the Far East offers its faded, architectural Islamic design to the large scale Jerash. Offered in three colourways - pewter, red or gold, the design is named for a city in Jordan, north of the capital Amman, known for the ruins of the walled Greco-Roman settlement of Gerasa.

Roll Length: 10 m - 11 yards , Roll Width: 52 cm - 20 1/2 in , Pattern Repeat: 51 cm – 20 5/64 in ,
