STANDEN DINING CHAIR

F4178

Based on a set of Pugin-style oak chairs that Robert had made for several decorating projects, subsequently joining the Robert Kime collection in the early 2000s, now being revisited. A beech frame, traditionally upholstered with spaced nailing detail and chamfered edging, this style of chair is synonymous with the chairs A.W Pugin designed for the House of Lords and House of Commons, in a Gothic Revival style. The Standen Dining Chair can be upholstered in the Robert Kime fabric of your choice. Shown here upholstered in Robert Kime's Mori fabric.
